Dear Bob,

Thanks for your nice note. I, too, am sorry we didn't get together during my visit to Indianapolis. In fact, I flew in just in time for luncheon with all of the VFW, American Legion and other bigwigs, and flew right out again after lunch. Pat couldn't make this one; hence, I tried to interrupt the weekend as little as possible.

Hope we'll see you and Skip down here during the forthcoming campaign. We always have an empty room and would be delighted to have you stay with us.

All the best from both of us.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER

Dear Stan:

You have had some great publicity here this week on television, radio and in the newspaper, and I hear you did an excellent job on Saturday.

I am sorry I was out of town. I certainly would like to have seen you --- and beaten you a little at tennis. Next time you come anywhere near here please let me know.

Politics are great, aren't they? I am terribly happy for you that the CIA is now in great favor and eternally amused at George Bush's numerous references to himself as the ex-CIA Director. You and I recall when he wouldn't even bring this up not long ago.

I hope you and Pat are enjoying your new home.

Sincerely,

Chairman
